Conditions of Press Accreditation

All applications must be received 7 days before the event on the Friday week before the event. Any applicants after this time may not be accepted. Every applicant will carefully be looked at but the Drift Allstars organisation has final say on applicants.

Press Requirements (To be attached when sending in your accreditation)

- We recommend to have your personal Public Liability Insurance. You will be personally responsible for any injury that can happen to you at the event.
- Every photographer/TV operator must have personal light reflective vest. Nobody will be able to enter press areas at the track or enter pitlane without light reflective vest.

- Examples of published work from the 2012/2013 season.
- Websites/Blogs/Social media outlets will be carefully viewed for the 2013 season. You must provide links/statistics/unique viewing numbers. Number of accreditations is limited.
- Film crews/Media teams all need to fill out a single forms for each person and submit all together in one packet.

Media Rights

When applying for a Drift Allstars accreditation passes all Photography and films are of full rights to Drift Allstars International. If we request images or film at anytime it must at our discretion.

Filming rights - All film requests once filled in should be sent to paulius@sviklas.lt for approval.

Media Briefings

All Press Attendee's are required to attend the Press Briefing at the main control/sign on area on both the mornings of the event.(If you do not attend you will not be granted a press pass). Media briefings change for each event but please contact the media office the week of the event. Timings will also be on a pre-event email.

Event Access

Once your accreditation has been approved we will submit your access ticket or your name will be at will call on entry to the venue.

After the event it is recommended that you send us your work so we can become accustomed with processing your application for future events.

All forms to be filled in with the above requirements and emailed to paulius@sviklas.lt.
